The Office has not been able to trace any such order. But even if there was, it would not obviate the necessity for an express exemption under Statutory authority for the purposes of the Arms Regn & Rules & for clause (a) of Part I of the latter is expressly confined to officers of the P.W. Dept, and does not apply to those of other Depts who may

H. V. NANJUNDAYYA, Esq., M. A., L. L.,
Secretary to Government,
General & Revenue Departments.

SIR,

With reference to Rule 1 of the Rules under the Mysore Arms Regulation, 1890, exempting certain officers from the operation of all prohibitions and directions contained in Sections 8 to 11 of the said Regulation ( with certain reservations ). I have the honour to request that the Government of His Highness the Maharaja may be pleased to include in that list all officers of the Mysore Geological Department ( in its various branches ) of and above the rank of Apprentice Geologists.

The reasons which apply to the exemption having been granted in the case of Public Works and Forest Officers apply also to officers of this Department, who have constantly to tour and halt in jungles and out of the way places.

The favour of early orders is requested.

I
